

TOGETHER OLD & YOUNG

Course creators

The TOY online course was designed and developed by:

Contact

Hellenic Open University, DAISSy
Research Group

Parodos Aristotelous 18, 26335 Patra,
Greece

Tel: +30 2610 367696

info@daissy.eap.gr

<http://daissy.eap.gr/en/>

www.toyproject.net

The online course has been developed in the framework of the project "Together Old And Young: Practitioners Learning And Upscaling Skills" which was funded by the European Commission Erasmus Plus Programme, KA2 - Adult Education.

The European Commission support for the production of this publication does not constitute an endorsement of the contents which reflects the views only of the authors, and the Commission cannot be held responsible for any use which may be made of the information contained therein.

Co-funded by the Erasmus+ Programme of the European Union

TOGETHER OLD & YOUNG

ONLINE COURSE

Are you interested in bringing older adults and young children together to share knowledge, skills, values and have fun?

If yes, then the online course
Together Old and Young:
An Intergenerational Approach is what you are looking for!

The aim

Through this online course you will learn about intergenerational practice with young children (0–8 years old) and older adults (65+ years old) and you will discover practical ways to create opportunities for good quality and sustainable activities.

Who is this course for?

This online course is designed for anyone who wishes to participate in continuing professional development in intergenerational learning. There is no requirement for prior knowledge or experience in this area of practice.

The course is relevant for:

- early childhood education and care practitioners
- primary school teachers
- social care practitioners and volunteers working with older adults
- community development workers

What are the learning objectives?

1. Understand the concept of intergenerational learning.
2. Be able to outline the benefits of bringing different generations together especially young children and older adults in a meaningful way.
3. Realise how intergenerational learning can be applied within a wide range of contexts and settings.
4. Plan and take steps towards implementing an intergenerational learning activity involving young children and older people.
5. Become familiar with tools and techniques used to facilitate quality and sustainable intergenerational activities.

Structure of the course

Commitment	4 weeks, 6 hours a week
Language	English
Cost	Free (upgrade costs required to achieve a Certificate)
What it includes	Articles, videos, games, discussion forums and

How to participate?

Visit the TOY website, where you will find information about the next starting date of the TOY course and register.

<http://www.toyproject.net/toy-course/>

